Scope and Contents

The Independent Regulatory Review Commission works to provide oversight and review of all proposed and existing rules and regulations issued by all departments, boards, commissions, agencies or other authorities of the Commonwealth, excluding the Legislature, Fish and Boat, and Game Commissions, and any court, political subdivision, municipal or local authority. The Commission exercises its authority to ensure that regulations are in the public interest and to determine whether regulations are cost justifiable, minimal in inflationary impact, non-duplicative of other regulations and conform to legislative intent. The Commission maintains a system of accountability to ensure that affected agencies properly justify their use of regulatory authority so that rules and regulations are not unduly burdensome nor adverse to the best interest of the private and public sectors of the Commonwealth. The Commission also acts as a clearinghouse for complaints, comments and other input regarding existing regulations, proposed regulations and administrative procedures.

The publications of the Independent Regulatory Review Commission contain annual reports. Selected topics from these publications include yearly agency happenings and statistics. The bulk of the current material is dated from 2006 to present.

Biographical / Historical

The Independent Regulatory Review Commission was created by the Regulatory Review Act (Act 181) of 1982.
