Scope and Contents

The Office of Comptroller Operations assists the Budget Secretary in the development, implementation, maintenance, review, monitoring, and control of uniform accounting, payroll, auditing, operating and financial reporting policies, procedures, and systems to ensure accountability of funds and the efficiency, effectiveness, and economy of financial operations of Commonwealth agencies. The Office prepares and issues the Commonwealth comprehensive annual financial report and the state-level single audit.

The publications of the Office of Comptroller Operations contain annual reports. Selected topics from these publications include financial balances and projections. The bulk of the current material is dated from 1986 to 2008.

Biographical / Historical

The Office of the Comptroller General was created in 1782 to audit, liquidate and adjust Commonwealth accounts. In 1809, the Office of the Comptroller General was abolished and its duties transferred to the Auditor General and State Treasurer. In 1929, the Comptroller was put under jurisdiction of the new Office of the Budget. The Office was reorganized in 2009 to consolidate bureaus and streamline efficiency.
