Scope and Contents

The Pennsylvania Higher Education Assistance Agency (PHEAA) is a quasi-governmental independent agency that administers several state-level and national higher education student financial aid programs and services for the Commonwealth. PHEAA funds are distributed to financial aid outlets, including the administration of the PA State Grant Program and other state-funded student aid programs.

The publications of the Pennsylvania Higher Education Assistance Agency contain annual reports, other reports and studies, and educational guides. Selected topics from these publications include educational finances, student loans, grants, and succeeding after education. The bulk of the current material is dated from 2020 to present.

Biographical / Historical

PHEAA was created by the Pennsylvania General Assembly in 1963 to provide affordable access to higher education.

Conditions Governing Use

The publications of the Pennsylvania Higher Education Assistance Agency (with the exceptions of the annual financial and budgetary reports) are copyrighted publications, for which the Pennsylvania Higher Education Assistance Agency has permitted educational use.
